The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 6. to Saturday August 10. 1723.

Whitehall, July 26.

TO the Intent that no Perſon may through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency omit complying with the Directions of the Act herein after ſet forth, and incur the Penalties thereby inflicted, it is thought proper to inſert the ſame at large in this Gazette; and all Perſons whatſoever, both Men and Women, in England, Scotland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, reſpectively, being of the Age of 18 or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the First Day of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, are to take Notice that they are obliged to take the ſaid Oaths within the Time, and in ſome of the Courts preſcribed for that Purpoſe, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their ſo doing, or in Default thereof to Regiſter their Names and real Eſtates in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act requires, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch real Eſtate as they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, ſhall be ſeized of, or otherwiſe intereſted in, at the Time when they ought to have made ſuch Regiſter.

Anno Nono Georgii Regis.

An Act to oblige all Perſons, being Papiſts, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Perſons in Great Britain, refuſing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by ſeveral Acts herein mentioned, to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates.

WHereas ſince His Majeſty's Happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, divers Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Traiterous Conſpiracies have been entred into, and carried on, for the Deſtruction of His Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, the overturning our Religious and Civil Rights, and for placing a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne: And whereas the Papiſts, and other Perſons, refuſing to take the Oaths appointed by Law to be taken to His Majeſty, have enjoyed, and do ſtill enjoy the Protection and Benefits of the Government, as well as the reſt of His Majeſty's Subjects, yet have been Notoriouſly concerned in Contriving, Stirring up, and Supporting the ſaid Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Conſpiracies, by which it moſt manifeſtly appears, that they take themſelves to be obliged, by the Principles they profeſs, to be Enemies to His Majeſty and the preſent Happy Eſtabliſhment; and foraſmuch as it is highly reaſonable, that the Government ſhould be throughly acquainted with, and apprized of the Number, Names, and Real Eſtates of ſuch diſaffected Perſons, as aforeſaid, in order more effectually to prevent, diſappoint or puniſh the like Traiterous Attempts for the future, in ſuch Manner, as by the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall hereafter be thought proper; Be it therefore Enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upward, not having already taken the Oaths appointed to be taken in and by an Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty three, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the General or Quarter-Seſſions for the County, City, Town, Liberty, or Diviſion, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths by the Time aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their reſpective Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as Papiſts were obliged and directed to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, in and by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's

[Price Three-Half-Pence.]

Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates;] and alſo by another Act made and paſſed in the Third Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, and for enlarging the Time for ſuch Regiſtring, and for ſecuring Purchaſes made to the Proteſtants;] and the reſpective Officers, appointed by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts, paſſed in the Firſt and Third Years of His Majeſty's Reign, appointed and directed to take and receive the Regiſters of the Names and Real Eſtates of ſuch Papiſts, are hereby authorized and required to take and receive the Regiſter of the Names and Real Eſtates, which are by virtue of this Act appointed to be Regiſtred, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts are preſcribed in relation to Papiſts; and ſhall ſign and return true Copies of the ſame into His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, on or before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That every Article, Clauſe, and Thing, in the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts contained, relating to the Regiſtring of the Names and Real Eſtates of Papiſts, or to receiving or taking the ſaid Regiſters, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwiſe, into the Truth and Reality of the ſame, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to all and every the Regiſters required and directed to be made and received, by and in purſuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if the ſame were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, or other Perſon or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, and all and every other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, not having already taken and ſubſcribed the Oath of Allegiance, ſubſcribed the Aſſurance, and taken and ſigned the Oath of Abjuration, as directed to be taken and ſubſcribed by ſuch Perſons, who bear any Office under His Majeſty, by the aforeſaid Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Aſſurance on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, before and in the Court of the Lords of Seſſion, or the Court of Juſticiary, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions held for the County, Shire, Stewartry, City, Burgh, Town, or Liberty, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, or before Sheriffs or Stewarts, or their Deputies, in open Court held for ſuch Shire, Stewartry, City, or Borough reſpectivly, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Papiſt, reputed Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, and all and every ſuch other Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Aſſurance by the Time aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their reſpective Names and real Eſtates in the Sheriff's Court, of ſuch Shire or County wherein their Eſtates do reſpectively lie, in the ſame Manner and Form, as Papiſts in that Part of Great Britain called England were obliged and directed to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, in and by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates;] and alſo by another Act, made and paſſed in the Third Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, and for enlarging the Time for ſuch Regiſtring, and for ſecuring Purchaſes made by Proteſtants;] and the ſaid reſpective Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputes, are hereby directed and required to take and receive ſuch Regiſtrations, as are hereby required to be made, and keep ſuch Books, and make ſuch Entries, as the Clerks of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties within that Part of Great Britain called England are, by virtue of the aforeſaid Act of the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates] directed and required to keep and make; and ſhall ſign and return true Copies of ſuch Regiſtrations into His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Article, Clauſe and Thing, in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act contained, relating to the receiving, taking and entring the Regiſters of the Names and Real Eſtates of Papiſts, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwiſe, into the Truth and Reality of the ſame, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to all and every the Regiſtrations required and directed to be made and received in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by and in purſuance of this Act, and to give the ſame Powers, Authorities, and Directions, to the ſaid Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputes reſpectively, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act are or were given to the Juſtices of the Peace in their open Quarter Seſſions, and Clerks of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties in that Part of Great Britain called England, in as full and ample Manner, as if the ſame were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, who is or are hereby directed and required to take and ſubſcribe the Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, as aforeſaid, or for want thereof, to Regiſter his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, ſhall not take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch Manner, as in this Act before is directed, within the reſpective Times herein before limited and appointed for the doing thereof, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon or Perſons neglecting or refuſing to take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or for want thereof, to make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of, or ſuch Eſtate and Intereſt in all ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments not Regiſtred, whereof he, ſhe, or they, or any Perſon ſon or Perſons in Truſt for him, her, or them, was or were ſeized in Fee-Simple, or otherwiſe intereſted in at the Time of ſuch Default, as aforeſaid; Two Third Parts thereof to the King, and the other Third Part thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being a Proteſtant or Proteſtants, who ſhall ſue for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lie in England, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any ſuch Court, and by ſuch Ways or Means, as are directed by the ſaid recited Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates; and ſhall ſue in His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lye in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Perſon or Perſons now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons do, within Six Months after his, her, or their Return into Great Britain, take or ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, according to the Appointment of this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hath or have taken and ſubſcribed, or ſhall, within the reſpective Times by this Act limited, take and ſubſcribe the Oath appointed to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Scotland, by an Act of the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for Security of the Government, to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houſes in Scotland] inſtead and in lieu of the Abjuration Oath, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and taken to have complied with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if ſuch Perſon had taken the ſaid Oath of Abjuration, and ſhall not incur any of the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, or be obliged to Regiſter his, her, or their Names, or Real Eſtates; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And for the better Diſcovery of Papiſts and reputed Papiſts in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Papiſts, reputed Papiſts, and Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion in Scotland, as aforeſaid, ſhall, at the time of taking and ſubſcribing the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and repeating and ſubſcribing the Aſſurance, as is herein before directed and required, make and ſubſcribe the Declaration called the Formula, as the ſame is recited in an Act of Parliament of Scotland, paſſed in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred [Intituled. Act for preventing the Growth of Popery;] and in caſe ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall neglect or refuſe to make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Formula, at ſuch Time and Times as are herein before directed, ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall be obliged to Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, in Manner and Form, as is herein before directed, or for want thereof, ſhall be liable to and incur the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by this Act inflicted and enacted againſt ſuch Perſons as ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſeveral Oaths appointed by this Act to be taken, or in caſe of ſuch Refuſal, ſhall neglect to make, or cauſe to be made, ſuch Regiſter as aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it enacted, That for taking and ſubſcribing the Oaths and Aſſurance appointed by this Act, Three Pence ſhall be paid, and no more; and for any Certificate thereof, if required, One Shilling, and no more.

AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 6th Day of Auguſt 1723.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the 13th Day of this Inſtant Auguſt, ſhould be further prorogued to Tueſday the 24th Day of September next.

Cambray, Aug. 12, N. S. This Day being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown, his Excellency the Lord Polwarth gave a magnificent Entertainment to all the Miniſters and other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes in this Town

Paris, Aug. 14. The next Morning after the Death of the Cardinal du Bois, the King declared the Duke of Orleans firſt Miniſter, and Surintendant of the Poſts of France. At Noon his Royal Highneſs waited on his Majeſty at Meudon, and took the Oath of Fidelity to him. The Letters Patents appointing his Royal Highneſs firſt Miniſter, were ſent that Day to the Parliament to be regiſtred. The Count de Morville ſucceeds the Cardinal, as Secretary of State for foreign Affairs: And M. de Maurepas is made Secretary for Marine Affairs, as was his Father M. de Pontchartrain. The Duke of Orleans has given to M. Du Bois the Cardinal's Brother 300000 Livres, in Conſideration of the Superintendency of the Poſt-Office. M. de Breteuil has a Patent for the Office of Secretary at War, upon paying 500000 Livres to the Cardinal's Brother; which gives him the ſaid M. de Breteuil, or his Family, a Right to receive the like Price for it from his Succeſſour in that Employment. The Cardinal's Brother is likewiſe to have 100000 Livres from M. de Maurepas, for the Marine Office. All the Duke of Orleans's Friends appear extremely ſatisfied with the Meaſures he has taken upon the Deceaſe of the Cardinal. On the 11th at Night, the Corpſe of the Cardinal du Bois was brought hither from Verſailles, in order to be interred in the Church of St. Honoré, and is placed in a Chapel for eight Days, during which, ſolemn Services are to be performed there. It is ſaid M. de St. Albin, Biſhop and Duke of Laon, will be nominated to the Archbiſhoprick of Cambray.

Hague, Aug. 13, N. S. M Peſters ſet out from hence Yeſterday for Amſterdam, where he is to confer this Day with the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, and purſue his Journey To-Morrow for Hanover.

Hanover, Aug. 13, N.S. Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, there was a great Appearance of Perſons of Diſtinction at Heerenhauſen, who went to compliment His Majeſty on that Occaſion. The Lord Viſcount Townſhend and the Lord Carteret gave ſplendid Entertainments at Dinner, at which were invited all the Foreign Miniſters who are here, and ſeveral of the Nobility of this Place. Laſt Night one of His Majeſty's Meſſengers who arrived here Expreſs from Paris, brought an Account that he had met the Night before near Wezel, M. Chavigny, who is coming hither with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the French Court, and is expected here to Night. Mr. Wich, His Majeſty's Miniſter at Hambourg, is to ſet out To-morrow to return thither. All our Advices from the North continue to affirm, that the Czar's Forces are not embarked, and that his Gallies remain at Cronſlot.

Trustees-Office, Aug. 1, 1723.

The Trustees for Sale of the forfeited Estates in Scotland, do hereby, pursuant to Acts of Parliament in that behalf, give Notice, That the Estates following are to be expos'd to publick Sale by Cant, or Auction, at their Office in Edinburgh, on the several Days aftermentioned, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve in the Forenoon, viz.
